SUBJECT: Announcing Regional Presentations on Educator Evaluation

On March 6, 2013, the Department of Education (“the Department”) plans to propose regulations to the State Board of Education providing rules for educator evaluation and professional development as outlined in the TEACHNJ Act. These regulations are scheduled to become effective at the beginning in SY13-14 and will include greater details about several elements of evaluation.

In March and April, the Department will hold presentations across the state in order to communicate the details of these regulations. Presentations will provide an opportunity for educators to not only learn more about the system, but also to provide feedback to the Department on how best to support local districts as they implement changes. We have established a variety of times and locations in order to accommodate as many interested parties as possible. Attendance is free for all guests, and space at each location is limited; therefore, we ask that you register at: <http://www.state.nj.us/education/EE4NJ/events/>
