OTHER PEOPLE'S CHILDREN

The Battle for Justice and Equality
in New Jersey's Schools

A PEI Roundtable on January 29, 2008
8:30 A.M. - 12:00 P.M. (breakfast and lunch will be provided)
at Rutgers University
Douglass Campus Center

We would like to extend an invitation to a PEI Roundtable featuring a presentation by the author of the recent book from Rutgers University Press, Other People's Children: The Battle for Justice and Equality in New Jersey's Schools by Deborah Yaffe. Ms. Yaffe offers powerful insights into the decades-long school funding battle in our state, and her book comes at an opportune time. A new controversial school Panelists include Lynne Strickland, Executive Director of the Garden State Coalition of Schools; Junius Williams, Director of the Abbott Leadership Institute; Irene Sterling, Executive Director of the Paterson Education Fund; more panelists to follow. Dr. Henry Coleman, professor at the Center for Government Services at Rutgers University will moderate the discussion.

funding law has been passed by the legislature, is headed to the Governor's desk for his signature, and is likely to be challenged in court. Ms. Yaffe will share her findings with us and then participate in a provocative meeting with several distinguished and knowledgeable panelists, responding to questions about how we can bring thorough and efficient and equitable educational opportunities to New Jersey's children.
